CAREER OF MR. FRANKS.

Mr. Franks was born on a farm near Marion, Ky., December 1, 1863, general store. While at work in the store he read law at nights.

In 1890 he was the Republican nominee for Congress in the First district. In 1892 he was the Asst-ant Elector for the State.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

In 1896 he was nominee for Congress in the Second district, and collected 4,500 more votes than any Republican that ever made the race in the district prior to that time but on account of a coalition between the Democrats and Populists he was defeated.

In 1897 President McKinley appointed him collector of Intern-Revenue for the Second District, which office he held for twelve years — twelve days, having been ap-

DYNAMITED
NEGRO WOMAN

Horrible Murder in San Dimingo Friday Night.

MURDERER ESCAPES.

Suspicion Points to a Strange Negro Working on the L & N. Road.

The two-room house of Annie Cox, a negro woman, 25 years old, was wrecked by dynamite at 3 o'clock Saturday morning and the woman was killed, her body being terribly mutilated. The explosion occurred in a negro settlement in the eastern suburbs and was heard in every part of town.

The police believe the perpetrator of the outrage was a negro known only as "Big Jim," a laborer on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad revision work, near the city. He has disappeared and a search is being made for him. "Big Jim" and Annie Cox had been living together for several weeks. Neighbors reported that they had a quarrel a few days ago. He was seen to return to the house Friday night. Nothing more was seen of either party until the woman's body was discovered in the ruins of the house.

The theory of the police is that after the woman was asleep "Big Jim" slipped a stick of dynamite on the bed and touched it off with fuse and cap. None of his clothing was found in the house. One side of the woman's body was torn to pieces.

Big Jim, whose name is Jim Crease, is still in the city and was seen dodging about yesterday. The police were close on his trail at one time, but he found a place of concealment. He came here from Birmingham and it is said has a criminal record.
